COMPASSIONATE LEADERSHIP:

Combining Empathy, Passion, and Purpose.

In today's ever-changing world of work, employee engagement and retention continue to be top of mind for employers. Research shows that employees' decisions to stay in a job are correlated to a sense of belonging, feeling valued by their leaders, the ability to make meaningful contributions, and having caring and trusting colleagues. This session will help leaders to elevate their impact through compassionate leadership strategies. Participants will gain skills to build solid relationships with their teams, hone empathetic listening skills, foster a culture of trust, and cultivate passion within their teams by aligning action with purpose.
