Engaging People at Work

Today's most successful leaders recognize that engagement is the key to a committed, fully productive workforce. But what does that really mean and how do we engage people especially during our present COVID-19 challenges?

We will dive into these and other questions in this interactive webinar, and identify actions leaders can take to support and engage people at work even during the toughest of times.

During this session, we will explore:

- Benefits of engagement.
- Barriers to and drivers of engagement.
- Specific actions to help people stay focused, energized and committed.
