Terri has a passion for helping others critically examine their actions and habits, and implement behavior change to 'get unstuck' and achieve their goals.

Leadership & Positivity: A SERIOUS LOOK AT FUN

Leadership — as we've seen this past year — can be tough, messy and complicated. This session explores using positivity to leverage peak performance and reduce mental, emotional and physical distress at work.

Join us as we identify traits, skills and actions that enhance well-being in the workplace and help people move from "survive" to "thrive"!
