PURPOSE-BASED LEADERSHIP: CREATING IMPACT THROUGH PURPOSE

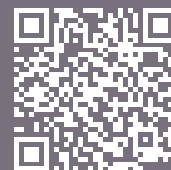

As leaders, it is clear that we have a responsibility to motivate our teams to deliver on results that impact bottom-line performance. It is also known that leaders are expected to create engagement by providing a clear vision & direction, sharing the mission, creating meaningful job descriptions and core values that guide us along the way. But as life gets busy and business needs change, it can be easy to lose sight of what fuels us and even more what fuels our teams? In this session, we will discover the purpose and values that drive you as an individual and as a leader, define your purpose to inspire others, tell your story, and create impact players by helping each member of the team understand the purpose their role serves within the organization and beyond.
